LINN'S WEEKLY STAMP NEWS

VOL. 4, No. 46 | COLUMBUS, OHIO, SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 17, 1932 | Whole No. 203

"And That's That!"

At last the cat's escaped the bag;—
  We know now where they stand;—
The news has just been heralded
  Throughout this wondrous land.

He's hid it underneath his lid
  For lo, these many years.
In fact we wouldn't know it yet—
  Save for politic fears.

But when the Philatelic world,
  With one accord acclaimed
A brother to be president
  'Twas then that "Herb" exclaimed:—

"That's nothing to inflate about
  And bring forth rousing cheers;—
Why, I and all my family
  Have collected stamps for years!"

Well, anyhow, I'll say he's no
  Enthusiast, at that,
Who's had a hobby all the while
  And kept it neath his hat!

CONSTRUCTION

BINDER—

The binder is 9¾x8⅜ inches in size, in heavy board, covered with a rich deep blue cloth, embossed in imitation of leather, the insides are lined with a fancy paper, the front has a sunken panel in which is placed an artistic name plate printed in black, green and gold on a blue ground, a very striking effect is thus produced.

The binder is of the Screw Post Type, pages are thus held firmly in place without any opportunity to slip or rub, yet easily and quickly interchangeable.

A sufficient number of expansion fillers are included in each album to place between pages and take up expansion caused by mounting stamps on the pages, thus preventing bulging of the album when filled.

PAGES—

One hundred pages 9¼x8 inches, printed from new plates, with an artistic border surrounding a fine quadrille ground work for mounting. This quadrille work is marked with a center of page position mark as well as position marks at both sides and at top and bottom of the page for accuracy in mounting. The paper is a light weight white bond paper, light in weight so that the book will lay open when in use.

A WEEKLY NEWSPAPER FOR STAMP COLLECTORS

25c per year in U. S. A. Canada and Foreign, per year, 75c

PUBLISHED EVERY SATURDAY BY LINPRINT AT 20 E. CHESTNUT STREET, COLUMBUS, OHIO

VOL. 4, No. 46 COLUMBUS, OHIO, SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 17, 1932 Whole No. 203

Entered as second-class matter March 13, 1929, at the post office at Columbus, Ohio, under the Act of March 3, 1879."

Historic Cachet Sponsored by Postoffice Department

POSTMASTER General Brown issued an order August 26, changing the name of the postal station located in the Post Office Department building, Washington, D. C. from Pennsylvania Avenue Station to Benjamin Franklin Station. The change is effective at five o'clock in the afternoon of September 26, 1932, the date on which the cornerstone for the new Post Office Department building will be laid by President Hoover. The new designation will go into effect immediately following these ceremonies.

The Benjamin Franklin Station will be removed to permanent headquarters in the new Post Office Department building when the latter is completed, which is expected to be in the spring of 1934. It will be located on the first floor of the new building.

Special arrangements will be made for the dispatch of letter mail on September 26, through the Benjamin Franklin Station, showing the name of the new station postmark as well as the date and hour of its establishment. The mail so dispatched will, on request, also receive a special cachet appropriate to the occasion.

Collectors desiring first day cancelations of the Benjamin Franklin Station and the special cachet may send a limited number of properly addressed letters, with postage stamps affixed sufficient for the first class letter rate of postage to the Postmaster, Washington, D. C., to be received not later than September 22. The outside of the package of covers should be endorsed "for Sept. 26 cancelation."

It will not be possible to comply with requests for the preparation of covers requiring the affixing of stamps or addressing of envelopes. Applications for registration of first day covers at the Benjamin Franklin Station cannot be honored and such covers will be subject to ordinary, air mail, or special delivery dispatch.

The cachet for this occasion will be approximately 2½x2½ inches in size and has been prepared with the idea of indicating the first and the latest modes of transportation of the U. S. Mails. In other words, the method of carrying the mail from one point to another in 1789, at the time the Post Office was established, contrasted with the latest method that has been devised for this purpose, and that is in regular use by the postal service on the 143rd anniversary in 1932.

This thought instantly suggests the horse and the airplane, and the design contains in the upper left hand corner, a drawing surmounted by the date 1789, of the old continental post rider proceeding at typical speed, along a strip of the corduroy road so prevalent at that time. A log house of the period shows in the background.

In the lower right hand corner is a picture of a modern airplane of the monoplane type flying over a stretch of country side with trees, mountains, and houses in the background, together with the date 1932.

The upper right hand corner contains the inscription,

"One Hundred Forty-third Anniversary of the establishment of the United States Post Office in the administration of George Washington."

Across the center is the caption, "United States Post Office Department" and in the lower left hand corner appears, "Laying of the corner stone of the new Post Office Department Building, Washington, September 26, 1932."

The design is square in shape and is surrounded by a plain double ruled border.

Benjamin Franklin, in whose honor the new postal station has been named, was a printer, publisher, philosopher, philanthropist and statesman. He was born in Boston, Massachusetts, January 17, 1706.

In 1737, Colonel Alexander Spottswood, the late Governor of Virginia and the then Postmaster General for the British Colonies in America, appointed Franklin postmaster at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, which position he held until 1751, when he became a member of the General Assembly of Pennsylvania. In 1753, the Postal Service was placed in charge of Franklin and William Hunter. The latter died in 1761 and Franklin remained in office until 1774. During this period he developed and maintained an efficient postal service.

In 1775, the Continental Congress in session at Philadelphia, adopted a resolution that a Postmaster General be appointed for the United Colonies and Benjamin Franklin was unanimously chosen. Following a year of successful administration as Postmaster General, Franklin was chosen to undertake negotiations both at home and abroad of vital importance to the United States. How well the immortal patriot accomplished his seemingly impossible mission is known to everyone acquainted with the history of our government.

AMERICAN AIR MAIL SOCIETY CONVENTION, SEPT. 1-3

The Third Annual Convention of the American Air Mail Society is now a thing of the past, being held at the Hollenden Hotel in Cleveland, Ohio. Approximately 130 delegates registered with the honors for longest distance going to W. R. Ware of Stuttgart, Arkansas.

The Exhibition was one of the outstanding features of the Convention, with many choice and pet pieces displayed. All phases to the hobby were covered and the various exhibits attracted much attention from the many visitors.

The program started off with registration of the delegates and calling of the first business session which was devoted to unfinished matters. This was continued in the afternoon, the evening being set aside for the bourse and reception.

Another business session was held on Friday morning, much satisfaction being declared with the success of the official organ, the Airpost Journal, now being published by the society. The auction was held on Friday afternoon by Donald E. Dickason, consisting of a collection from Holcomb York. Many choice pieces were offered and sold at prices better than in the past several sales, according to Mr. Dickason. The Newfoundland "Columbia" stamp went for $217, a Byrd Transatlantic cover sold for $115. The U. S. Pioneers showed a marked improvement in prices obtained.

The banquet was held on Friday evening, the guest of honor being Dr. Don Crawford, who gave a talk on national preparedness and the possibilities of aerial invasion in case of war. He stressed the fact that this country is way behind others in aviation being about sixth on the list in the number of planes owned by the major powers. Geo. D. Kingdom and Walter J. Conrath provided the entertainment of the evening, giving a humorous skit on the editing and production of the Airpost Journal. An "extra" edition was distributed at the banquet and contained the last minute news of the doings of various members. The official photograph was taken at this time.

Saturday morning was devoted to the completion of business and report of the nominating committee. The slate of officers is as follows: Presiden, L. B. Gatchell; Vice-Presidents, R. V. Bahr, G. D. Kingdom, A. N. Brown and F. B. Leech; Directors, H. H. Griffin, J. T. Schweier, H. S. Parsons, Karl B. Weber, M. S. Petty, Oscar L. Mayer and Erik Hildesheim; Sec'y-Treas., Geo. W. Angers. The title of President-Emeritus was conferred upon H. H. Griffin and H. A. Truby.

The National Air Races was the scene of activity in the afternoon, but rain interfered toward the close of the program. The delegates returned to the hotel for their final farewells and toasts. —S. H. Falkoff.

Have you noticed that the 5c Olympic in used condition is a very hard stamp to find. Captain Townsend tells of picking up a lot of 2000 used stamps from an Office Building in Chicago and there was but one 5c Olympic in the lot. This stamp turned out to be a dud as far as advertising the Olympic Games is concerned. Originally it was planned that there would be a 2c stamp for ordinary mail and a 5c value for air mail. When the postage rate was raised the 2c stamp was switched to a 3c stamp and the 5c which should have been changed to an 8c for air mail was overlooked and that accounts a lot for the lack of its general use.

INTERVIEWS WITH STAMP PORTRAITS

By Capt. A. C. Townsend

Mr. Ericsson, there is a young man over yonder asking for an interview with you. Will you talk to him?

Are you certain he is looking for me, and not Leif Ericson? Visitors sometimes get us confused, you know. I am not the man who discovered America.

He wants you all right. It is that reporter from Linn's. Says he wants to see the man who invented the "Yankee Cheesebox on a Raft."

Very well, I'll talk to him. I think the Linn readers must be very tired of the interviews in which the Shades boast about their accomplishments, so I'll try to be different.

Good morning, young sir. I presume you wish to know how I like the 5c stamp issued in my honor on May 29, 1926? It is a beautiful and unusual stamp, and I am very proud of it. You of course know that it is a copy of the monument erected to my memory in Washington, D. C., near the Lagoon?

Yes, sir, but why did they issue a 5c instead of a 2c stamp, Mr. Ericsson? It is a welcome relief from the great number of red 2c stamps, but why was it?

Because I was a Swede, my boy, and it was presumed that many people would use the stamp on foreign mail.

I see; never thought of that. Of course lots of people of Swedish descent wrote home then about you, and how the monument was unveiled by the Swedish Crown Prince on May 29th. Any of them would be proud of the man who invented . . .

Never mind that. Your readers know that I invented the Monitor and the screw propeller, but since the steam fire engine has largely passed on, I wonder how many of them know that I invented it, and the story of the two Irishmen seeing their first one. Do you know it? Good! Here it is:

These two men had come over to New York and put up the first night in a little hotel down on the Bowery. One of them had gone to sleep and the other was looking out of the window at the sights when a fire engine came down the street, smoke and sparks shooting up, its siren screaming wildly, and hot coals dropping on the roadway from its firebox.

He watched it pass in awestruck silence. Then his ear was torn by the screams of another siren, as a second engine came madly on the trail of the first. He turned his head and cried to the sleeper, "Pat, wake up and come here and look, quick! They're moving Hell. Here comes the second load."

SALVATION ARMY CHARITY STAMPS

The Government of the Dutch East Indies is to issue a series of specially designed charity stamps next Christmas, the extra proceeds from the sale of which will be given to The Salvation Army for its work in that country.

The series will consist of four stamps: Two cent stamps to be sold for three cents, five cent stamps to be sold for seven and a half cents, twelve and a half cent stamps to be sold for fifteen cents, and fifteen cent stamps to be sold for twenty cents.

Each of the series show some phase of Javanese industry, and the stamps will be printed in two colors, displaying The Salvation Army crest and the name "Leger des Heils," the Dutch version of the name "Salvation Army." The set of four can be obtained for 20 cents (American).

The Salvation Army has been at work in Java and the surrounding islands since 1894. During that time the Government has increasingly handed over much of the welfare work to the organization and today an extensive program is in operation.

One of the chief activities is the responsibility for four leper colonies, with over 1,000 patients, where for the last twenty-three years The Salvation Army has cared for the victims of leprosy, who are consigned to their care by the Government.

There are also three general hospitals, specializing in eye diseases, which are so prevalent in the Dutch East Indies; Homes for Children, Women and Girls, Day Schools and a Training College, in addition to missionary posts throughout the country.

The Salvation Army is the only religious organization allowed on the Island of Celebes, the home of the head-hunters. There the officers act as teachers, doctors and general advisors to those backward people.

Altogether The Salvation Army with its consistent work on behalf of the natives has won the respect and approval of the governing class, as is shown by this latest mark of their favor. This is the first time in the history of the Army that postage stamps have been issued bearing the official crest.

These stamps will, by reason of their limited issue, appeal to collectors, who can obtain full information on application to The Salvation Army Headquarters, 120 West 14th Street, New York, N. Y.

K. M. GIERHART, BALTIMORE, OHIO

A list of unusual types that catch the eye are given below at random. Ardmore Penna., Charlottesville, Va., Reno, Nev., Yankton, S. Dak., Gloversville, N. Y., Kenosha, Wis., Barre, Vt., Upper Darby Pa., Corning, N. Y., East Aurora, N. Y., Kokomo, Ind. In all the above I refer to the printed types of these places and if you check with me you will find each to be distinctive, and not often duplicated by other cities.

A little advice. Don't pay anything extra for plate breaks in general precancels unless it is some particular stamp you want to fill out a set. The ordinary break does not increase the value of the precancel and is nothing to pay attention to unless you have quite a supply of items from one town and want to specialize a little. Even in the latter case you are not adding value to your collection above what the ordinary stamps are worth.

In a few weeks I want to take my readers on a trip thru my album pages pointing out here and there items of interest. You can check your collection with mine as we go along, and you will soon find out what a fine collection you have as you will note lots of items not in my collection. I hope this will prove interesting.

Why Bureau Prints? Hardly a week passes that we do not get this question in some form or another. Are they precancels? Yes, indeed. Why then are they any different than any other precancels. Well, they are precancels whose manufacture are supervised by the Bureau of Eangraving and Printing where as the general precancels are made at the discretion of the local postmaster. We have a very exacting record of Bureau Prints both as to issues and quantity. When you see an ordinary Bureau you know that there were at least 500,000 of that particular stamp and if it's a bureau coil you immediately know that at least 250,000 of that stamp was issued. Compare this with local precancels where the postmaster may overprint one, two, five or ten sheets. In spite of the rather large figures quoted above there are many bureaus that are right tough to corral.

Now, how can I tell a bureau print. Here's two rules to start with. If it's an ordinary stamp it must be any value from ½ to 10 cents. If it's a coil from 1 to 10 cents, there will be but two perforations to annoy either a straight perf. ten or a compound 11x10½. Now many general precancels will fit these measurements so if you're at all interested in Bureau Prints we suggest you get the semi-annual Hoover-Mitchell Bureau Print catalog. The entire story of their manufacture by H. M. Southgate is there plus illustrations of the 12 known types. Only 12, mind you.

If we have missed any vital point on this short set-up, drop us a line and please don't forget one of those many varieties of three cent stamps now in use. Thank you.

WM. PENN IN ARMOR

The Wm. Penn picture from which the new Penn stamps are to be copied is a picture of Wm. Penn in Armor. The original painting is in the possession of the Pennsylvania Historical Society. The government copy is to be taken from an engraving copied from this painting.

The Penn portrait in armor on the envelopes issued by LINPRINT is a copy of the engraving of Wm. Penn in armor. This is a beautiful steel engraving and shows Penn as a dashing youth, rather than as the old quaker gentleman so frequently pictured.

ORIGINAL Cover Album

A Practical Cover Album at a Price That Will Meet With Your Approval

CAPACITY 300 COVERS

A Cover Album for all kinds, sizes and shapes of covers. This album meets the need of the collector of Air Mail Covers, Cacheted Covers, First Day Covers, Entire Envelopes, Stampless Covers, Foreign or U. S. Covers of any kind or size.

The binder is the Chicago Screw Post style of binding, pages easily and quickly interchangeable. The binder is of heavy board, covered with a rich maroon cloth in imitation of leather, stamped with title and name in gilt, inner lining is a fancy art paper.

The pages are 13 inches high by 17 inches wide, pages are of a heavy art cover paper in a French Gray color, mounting pages are interleaved with a piece of very tough and thin white onion skin, thus permitting mounting covers on both sides of the page without danger of rubbing or snagging. This gives the book double capacity and for standard size envelopes, will hold six covers to the page. The album of 25 pages will thus hold 300 covers. Every page is also interleaved with a stub to allow for expansion, so that when filled the book will not bulge.

Note the beauty of this album in the illustration shown. You can not find a better, more practical or a cheaper method of keeping your covers in a way that will permit their display.

Album holds 300 covers—cost is but one cent per cover for this high quality, practical cover album.

Covers should be mounted with art corners.

QUESTIONS WE CAN NOT ANSWER We receive many letters from collectors who wish to know the value of certain stamps and covers. When it is a matter of stamps that are listed in the Standard Catalogue one had best turn to that catalogue for an estimate of value. The greatest difficulty is in the valueing of current cacheted covers. Frequently someone writes and describes some recent cover that they have obtained and asks that we place a value on same. It is not possible that we can place values on such covers. In instances of this sort we would only be able to advise that the covers of this class are as a rule obtainable at from 10 to 20 cents each from many sources. If the particular cover you have is of some especial value due to autographs or special markings, you can best place a value on same by considering its cost to you and adding a sum that will be satisfactory to the prospective purchaser. That, in the end is the real test of value. They are not always worth what you might ask for them but what you can get for them.

NEW ADV. RATES Steadily increasing circulation with increased costs of production for our publication justify an increase in advertising rates. New rates will go into effect in October. Dealers who contemplate use of space in this publication this coming season will do well to contract at once on the present rate schedule. An announcement will be made in an early number and with the winter stamp season just ahead, there is no advertising medium in the country that offers so much in value as Linn's Weekly Stamp News.

Our rapid growth in circulation now permits us to make the claim of the Largest Paid Circulation of any Philatelic Publication in the World.

AN INCH IS AN INCH Last summer we had considerable controversy with an advertising patron who insisted on supplying copy and ordering it printed in such manner that it required one and one-half inches of space. We insisted on billing this advertisement as one and one-half inches and as a result the advertising patron became angered and ordered the advertisement discontinued, stating at that time that other magazines were carrying the same advertisement in the same size space and charging for but a single inch.

We checked up and found the advertisement appearing in an inch and a half space in several other publications. We continued to run along without printing the copy. Now this dealer comes back to us and orders the advertisement printed again, still claiming that we should give him one and one-half inch space and charge him for but one inch. He states that every other publication which carries the same copy in one and a half inches of space is charging him for only one inch.

We are printing the advertisement and we are charging the advertiser for one and one-half inches or we will not print the advertisement.

We feel that we are justified in making this comment in order that other advertisers may know that all advertising printed in Linn's Weekly Stamp News is charged for on the basis of the amount of space used and that we give nothing to one that we do not give to another. Our rates and charges are the same to all, regardless of who they are.

A REAL CONVENTION At just about the last minute, your editor loaded his wife and his grips in the old buggy and made a dash for the American Air Mail Society Convention in Cleveland, September 2, 3, 4. This was a real convention and the Cleveland Air Mail Society is to be congratulated on the excellent manner in which they handled the event and this includes both the business sessions of the Society as well as the banquet and entertainment features and in this latter matter they were ably assisted, until the "wee hours" of the morning by enthusiastic members from all parts of the country, members who are past masters at the art.

Elsewhere in this issue we are pleased to present a brief story of the convention by Mr. S. H. Falkoff of Wooster, Ohio.

The Hollenden Hotel of Cleveland gave excellent service to the attendants and was an ideal place for the meeting.

STAMP SOCIETIES WISHING TO hold successful conventions should make arrangements with Carter Glass, Jr., of Virginia. This boy is a one man minstrel show.

THEN THERE WAS THE LITTLE brown jug from Arkansas. We have wondered who took that home for a souvenir.

ONE OF THE UNFORTUNATE things about all good conventions is that one cannot attend all the parties.

THE PURPLE THREE CENT stamps are causing the Postoffice Department some worry for those coming in a dark print do not show the cancellation marks plainly and Uncle Sammy is cautioning postmasters to spread lots of ink on in cancelling the letters.

B. L. AHMAN, JR., OF BALTIMORE, Md., sends a copy of the 1c Bicentennial which shows a very pronounced triangular shaped dot on the right shoulder of Washington. The stamp is a used copy and the plate or position is not known.

THE U. S. CHECK LIST AND sales system in connection with same, offered by George Munsey is a novel idea and seems to be a practical one.

THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE IS THE latest of the newspapers to add a stamp column as a weekly feature. Richard McP. Cabeen will act as stamp editor and the Tribune claims that there are 100,000 stamp collectors in the Chicago area. In addition to the stamp page the Tribune radio station WGN will make frequent stamp announcements. The Chicago Tribune modestly claims to be the World's Greatest Newspaper.

DO NOT FORGET THAT PICTURE of Philatelic Interest for publication in Linn's Weekly Stamp News. Any picture of a Philatelic subject or event. Next week we will print the first of the pictures. Send along a story of the picture also. Pictures must be photographs or drawings, clippings from newspapers will not reproduce satisfactorily.

GEORGE WASHINGTON — REAL Boy is the title of a handsome 24 page and cover booklet issued by the Franklin Press of Washington, D. C. It gives space for mounting the current Bicentennial stamps along with a life history of Washington in a neat and compact little booklet.

FRANCE TO PLACE GOVERNMENT STAMP ON FASHION CREATIONS

The theft of Paris fashions by copyists has reached such proportions that the French government has taken steps to assist fashion creators in protecting their own ideas. Hereafter a government stamp will be on the label of original frocks and hats. While the copyists may copy the style they dare not copy the government stamp and thus genuine Rue de la Paix creations will be protected and the ladies may know by the stamp if the garment is a genuine or a counterfeit.

Since the French government is taking an interest in the style industry why not go a step farther and issue new postage stamps each year showing the latest Paris styles. This would be a novel and practical method of advertising one of the chief industries of France.

One Cent Each

Are you tired of the usual run of one cent approvals? Do you want to see something different along this line? If your collection is 15,000 or less, and you will agree to purchase no less than 50c at one time, write to the Akron Stamp Man, giving references, of course, if unknown to us, asking for a trial selection of real one cent approval books. You be the judge.

Air Mail Convention

The American Air Mail Society convention and exhibition held at the Hollenden Hotel at Cleveland, Ohio, September 1-3 was the most successful in the history of that thriving organization. More than one hundred enthusiasts from all parts of the country were present and took part in the proceedings and among the states represented outside of Ohio, were Arkansas, Missouri, Illinois, Michigan, Indiana, Pennsylvania, New York, Virginia, Massachusetts and District of Columbia.

The Exhibition in its 151 frames contained the choicest items of forty exhibitors from their collections of Pioneers, Historicals, CAMS, FAMS, Crashes, Lindberghs, Zeppelins, Foreigns and Pilot Autographs, while Air Mail Stamps were represented by leading collections, and no doubt was the finest showing of this hobby, ever shown together. The Grand Award of Merit was given to Geo. W. Angers on his Balloon and Pigeon Posts, and the Cleveland Air Mail Society trophy was awarded to Geo. D. Kingdom for the most outstanding exhibit shown in the exhibition.

The society auction was well attended and excellent bids prevailed, among which might be mentioned Byrd Trans-Atlantic cover, $115.00 and R-100 cover, $35.00, and all Pioneers and Stamps attracted spirited bidding.

The following officers were placed in nomination for the coming year: President, L. B. Gatchell; Vice Presidents, Ray V. Bahr, Geo. D. Kingdom, Albert N. Brown and Francis B. Leech; Secretary and Treasurer, Geo. W. Angers; Directors, H. H. Griffin, Henry S. Parsons, Karl B. Weber, Maurice S. Petty, Oscar Mayer, Eric Hildesheim and J. T. Schweier.

About one hundred attended the annual banquet among which we noticed Roscoe B. Martin, Forrestville, N. Y.; Geo. W. Linn, Columbus, Ohio; O. R. L. Singley, Lancaster, Pa.; John Thomas and Fred Shartle, Sharon, Pa.; Henry Wittber, Ft. Wayne, Ind.; Chas. G. Reiss, Albany, N. Y.; Carter Glass, Jr., Lynchburg, Va.; Robt. W. Flinn, Norwood, Ohio; Henry O. Nouss and C. W. Lounsberry, St. Louis, Mo.; J. B. Scoville, Lewiston, N. Y.; J. J. Minke, Oak Park, Ill.; Thos. J. Gethus, Boston, Mass.; J. B. Jackson, H. H. Jackson and A. G. Meyers, Ferndale, Mich.; Karl B. Weber, Pittsburgh, Pa.; M. S. Petty and Francis B. Leech, Washington, D. C.; H. C. Carpenter, Cincinnati, Ohio; John M. Churchill, Batavia, N. Coming

October 11th the stamp club at the Y. M. C. A. at Berkeley, Calif., will sponsor a cachet in honor of George William, founder of the world-wide Y. M. C. A. Covers may be sent to C. E. Morris, 921 Kains Avenue, Berkeley, Calif.

Virginia's War Memorial, "The Carillon", brings a cachet at Richmond on October 15th. Send covers to Robert Waitt, Jr., c/o Adjutant General's Office, State Office Building, Richmond, Va.

Delaware County Chamber of Commerce and other clubs are sponsoring a good cachet to commemorate the 250th anniversary of the landing of William Penn at Chester, Pa., on October 24th and covers may be sent to them at 511 Welsh Street, Chester, Pa. As the new Penn commemorative stamp will go on sale there that day, probably if you send the necessary CASH, not stamps, they will apply the new stamp to your covers for you, so you would get the cachet and a first day cover of the new stamp also.

Notes

Apparently many persons are collecting Washington Bi-Centennial covers as it is reported that from 25,000 to 35,000 are being mailed for each of the events coming from Federal Hall, Bryant Park, N. Y.

In connection with the Decatur, Ill., dedication, it is interesting to note that the 496 covers for this event were cancelled at a temporary postoffice set up at the field, by permission from Washington, were then taken by the postmaster and flown in a private plane to the nearest air mail port at Springfield, Ill.

NOTES ON SERBIAN STAMPS

Montgomery Mulford

The collecting of the stamps of those nations which no longer exist is an interesting pursuit. Serbia for instance, which grew into Jugoslavia. After the 1918-20 series of Serbia, Jugoslavia was born; so we may complete the postal issues of the former state to that time. The first Serbian stamps appeared in 1866 during the reign of Prince Michael Obrenovich III (1860-68). He is portrayed on some of the issues of '66.

In 1869 came Prince Milan IV, portrayed on his issues; he became king in 1882 and is again portrayed on his issues. He reigned until 1889 when King Alexander ascended the Serbian throne. You will find his likeness on the 1894 postage stamps.

Peter Karageorgevich followed (June, 1903) and you will find this king likewise shown on the Serbian stamps during his reign.

In 1904 appeared commemorative stamps celebrating the centenary of the Karageorgevich dynasty. The dates "1804" and "1904" appear, and one of the values portrays the monarch ruling at each date—Peter and George.

Up to this date ALL Serbian stamps with the exception of certain values of the first issue, have been portraits. The 1904 series contains one design other than a portrait; and on the 1915 series we find King Peter shown on the battlefield.

The first stamps for Greater Serbia, or Jugoslavia, were overprinted Bosnian issues for 1918. Another series appeared in November of that year typifying the freeing of the Jugoslavs, a definite issue.

Jugoslavia was first known as Croatia-Slavonia; an issue for Slavonia appeared in 1919, the design showing the figure of a man breaking the chains "of slavery".

The 1920 stamps portray King Peter of Serbia. The 1921 issues, for Jugoslavia portray King Peter and Prince Alexander. Alexander as King is shown on the 1924 issue.

In 1929 came the series for the millenary of the Croatian kingdom, being semipostals so that no further need be said about them or any other semipostal or charity stamps (which, however, are interesting).

Jugoslavia is a union of the Croates and Slavs (Serbs), an attempt at a dual-republic, as Austria-Hungary was once a dual monarchy and as Norway and Sweden were once a dual-kingdom. King Alexander has not had easy sledding, as it were, within late years; but only time will tell whether two races of people can unite into a dualism in government and, together, progress without friction or threat to the existence of their combined state.

But these stamps suggest history. We may trace the dynasties from the time the first Serbian postage stamps appeared, to the present time. We see, through stamps, the change from Serbia to Jugoslavia with the overprints and surcharges. Thus are stamps instructive and mark epochs in history. For this reason we should familiarize ourselves with what a stamp stands for, as well as knowing its philatelic pointers.

INTERESTING NAVAL COVERS

The U. S. S. Dolphin is to make her first cruise within a very short time and Mr. Chas. F. Chamberlain of Portsmouth, N. H., has been carrying a classified advertisement offering covers from this cruise. We understand that there is to be a set of several covers, one from each port of call as well as covers for certain dates of interest on this cruise, the arrangements have been made so that covers will also be autographed and this set will doubtless be something unique in Naval covers. Mr. Chamberlain tells us that the price of the set is $1.50 and that orders are necessary before October 10th.

TWO CENT AIR MAIL

Taxpayers pay 9c for air mail every time a 5c air mail stamp is used. The 3 million pounds of air mail carried in 1930 were handled at a loss of $15,168,778. During the same period 345 million pounds of domestic first class non-local mail was handled by the Post Office Department—including the mail sent by air—at a profit of about $44,000,000. All of these 345 million pounds could be sent by air at the 2c rate at a saving over the present rail and air costs.

We would gather from this statement that if the planes were loaded with capacity loads that transportation cost by air would be far cheaper than cost by rail. Yet we have the air mail rates advanced which reduces the load and increases the cost and piles up the deficit.—Editor.

STAMP FRAUD ARRESTED

In a recent issue of this paper attention was called to an advertiser in Pittsburgh, Pa., who carried an advertisement in a Chicago Hobby paper offering stamps at prices at which no dealer could legitimately sell them. It was pointed out at that time that publishers should learn something about stamps if they intend to carry stamp advertising so that they could keep such spurious advertising offers out of their papers.

At the present time, this is of more importance than ever before for with the widespread publicity being given stamp collecting in the dozens of daily newspapers throughout the country, thousands upon thousands of new people are being attracted to stamp collecting as a pastime. It is of immense importance that dealers and collectors alike guard against that class of tricksters who will overcharge or defraud these collectors who are entering our hobby with little experience to guide them and in this way, publishers of recognized Philatelic publications must be on their guard against this class of trader.

A clipping at hand from a Carnegie, Pa., collector tells of the arrest of one Albert Kessler, alias Ralph Harris, and this is the name of the party that was appended to the advertisement in question. Harris is held by the Federal authorities for fraudulent use of the mails.

FORGERIES OF AUSTRIAN STAMPS

The Committee against forgeries of stamps of the Federation of the Austrian Philatelic Societies and the Austrian Stamp Dealer Association send us the following informations: A very small organization of stamp dealers under the name of "B. H. G., Ein- und Verkaufsgenossenschaft von Briefmarkenhandlern Osterreichs" in Vienna, which has been founded some time ago has fabricated forgeries of Austrian stamps, issues 1910, 2, 5, 10 Kr. and 1908, 10 Kr., which are sold under the name of "Nachdrucke" (reprints) for a price high enough. The truth is, that these are absolutely forgeries without any philatelic value, which have been printed by some members of this organization. The Austrian Stamp Dealers Association which exists more than 30 years has forbidden to all its members to deal in these forgeries.
